THE COURTS.
LAW COURT.—H. S. Lee, Judge.—The argument in the case of Hinkins & Co. vs.
Wade was concluded yesterday morning, and the case given to the jury. The jury in the case of Baron vs. Wade having had the same under consideration for several days, came in Court and an nounced that it was impossible for them to agree upon a verdict. The Presiding Court discharged the jury and ordered the court to enter a mistrial. Today the calendar published on Tuesday last will be resumed, commanding with the case of Manning & Co. vs. Wade. This being similar in its nature to that of the two preceding cases in which the defendant, will very likely keep the Court occupied for a day or two. A few writs of inquiry will be executed as soon as Court convenes.
